

Pilate's Wife monologue

CHARACTERS: Pilate's Wife

PROPS: None

SETTING: Bare stage

RUN TIME: 2 minutes

SCRIPTURE/BASED ON: Matthew 27:19, 1 Peter 2:24, Hebrews 2:1-3

While my husband, Pilate, was sitting on the judge's seat, I sent him this message: "Don't have anything to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream because of him."

I was talking about Jesus. Telling my husband to have nothing to do with him, to ignore him, to walk away.

I should have said, "We must pay the most careful attention to Jesus! How shall we escape if we ignore so great a salvation?"

Instead I counseled the one man who could have saved him, to ignore him. Have nothing to do with him. It seemed the safest thing to do.

I was so wrong. Are you?
