

Ghosts

CHARACTERS: 3 children

PROPS: None

COSTUMES: Street clothes

SETTING: None specified

Lines are spoken in loud stage whispers as if they are trying not to be overheard by some adults. C must pantomime in big and eye catching movements. C must be very involved in the scene without speaking alone until the very end. Both B and C must convey how spooky and frightening the experience was with big eyes, tone of voice, especially when they huddle together saying "Nooooo"

A: (Big eyed, in awe and wonder at what they have done) Did you guys really go in the haunted house on Grove Street?

B: Yes (C nods emphatically)

A: (Curiosity aroused) Did you see any ghosts?

B: Yes (C: pantomimes big ghosts)

A: Big ones?

B: Yes. (C continues to pantomime even bigger ones)

A: What did you do?

B: First we tried singing a hymn. (C pantomimes opening a hymnal)

A: Did that work?

B&C (in unison, holding onto each other as if scared, heads together, eyes scrunched tightly closed in fear) NOOOOOOOO

A: Then what did you do?

B: Then we tried saying a prayer. (C pantomimes praying)

A: Did that work?

B&C: (together, holding onto each other as if scared, heads together, eyes scrunched tightly closed in fear) NOOOOOOOO

A: Then what did you do?

B: We said all the memory verses we could remember. (C pantomimes counting on fingers)

A: Did that work?

B&C (together, holding onto each other as if scared, heads together, eyes scrunched tightly closed in fear) NOOOOOOO

A: You got out alive. What did work? (Emphasis on "Did")

B: We did what they do at church

C: (Matter of factly) We passed a collection plate. (Pantomimes handing a plate to A)
