

	Second Thoughts
David	A harp string could be used as a garrote to behead someone and the harp in Ish's room was missing a string.
NOT Merab	Merab was furious Ish was not letting her or her son have a throne next to his. Servants in the kitchen say Merab brought Ish his after lunch wine herself, refusing to let anyone touch it.
Michal	One of the bags of wheat you saw tossed in the kitchen had sticky, red stains on it. You tried to point it out to some of the kitchen slaves but they were too busy trying to figure out what happened to some sleeping medicine that was missing.
Rizpah	Zorba and Zobah sound an awful lot alike. Zobah was one of the victories Saul was proud of.
Rechab	The two guys headed out of town in a big hurry were Rizpah's two kids by King Saul.
Baanah	Rizpah's kids (Saul's kids too since she was his concubine) are never far from her but they are nowhere in sight now. Could bringing this up help pin the murder on her and them?
Paltiel	Baanah and Rechab are two of the men who went back and forth between Abner, Ish and David and who took your wife away.
Zorba	The two voices you heard in the wheat room sounded like Baanah and his brother.
Merab	Your sister Michal was madly in love with David for quite some time. Now she's upset he has all these other wives. Would she kill her own nephew to move back into the #1 wife slot?
NOT Adriel or Zorba	Zorbah and Adriel are both musicians and a harp was at the murder scene.
Adriel	Saul passed over Baanah for a promotion and he and his brother swore revenge. When Ish came to power, he didn't promote either of them.
