A: What would you do for a friend?

B: Suppose you have a friend, and you go to him at midnight

A: Friend, lend me three loaves of bread. A friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I have no food to offer him.

B: (sleepy and grouchy) Don't bother me. The door is already locked, and my children and I are in bed. I can't get up and give you anything.

A: Yes you can. I'll just keep knocking until you do.

B: I'll get you the bread but NOT because of our friendship.

A: (confident) It's because of my shameless audacity and persistence.

B: Yes. I'll get up and give you as much as you need.

A: Ask and it will be given to you.

B: Seek and you will find.

A: Knock and the door will be opened to you.

B: For everyone who asks receives.

A: The one who seeks finds.

B: For the one who knocks

A & B: (in unison) the door will be opened.
